

TITLE: Special Education - Authority/Scope
State Board of Education Ref: 18-20-1

Authority

The Gilmer County Board of Education abides by Chapter 18, Article 20, of the West Virginia Code, entitled "Education of Exceptional Children", and recognizes that the Board of Education has the statutory authority for establishing regulations governing programs and services for the education of exceptional individuals.

Scope

The Gilmer County Board of Education recognizes that these regulations apply to the provision of educational and education related services to exceptional individuals requiring special education who are between five and twenty-three years of age. In addition, they apply to the provision of special education and related services to children under five years of age to the extent that programs and services are offered by county boards of education.
